OUR VISION

Our vision is to be a first-rate source of development opportunities that empower teams and leaders in the Tri-State area using our distinctive venue and equine assisted learning.

With our expertise and dedication, we are committed to driving positive change, unlocking new opportunities, and fueling your professional growth.

ABOUT US

Carey Springs Farm, LLC, located in Elberfeld, near Evansville, Indiana, offers transformative equine assisted learning programs using a proven learning model and tailored for your corporate, small business, or other professional team.

Cathy Carey, our certified facilitator, has partnered with gentle horses and experienced handlers to facilitate exercises that reflect workplace dynamics, emphasizing leadership, problem-solving, and effective communication.

Cathy Carey

Our immersive environment provides a refreshing break from the traditional conference room setting, allowing professionals to learn from these intuitive animals. This fosters genuine connections and enhances teamwork in a manner unparalleled by conventional methods.
